Dear Nabeel Ahmad

You have successfully registered for the waiting list to obtain an appointment for submitting your application for a study visa.

Your reference no. is 15994657.

Amongst others, these details have been saved:

Passport No.: AX1189971
Last Name: Ahmad
First Name: Nabeel

Priority choices for students: Masterstudenten mit direkter Zulassung ohne Bedingungen/master students holding an unconditional direct admission letter from a German university

Admission valid for: Sommersemester 2023/Summer semester 2023

You will receive a notification with your appointment slot separately. This notification will also be sent via email to the address provided by you (nabeel5003143@gmail.com).

Appointments are allocated as per the order of incoming registrations.

Students with a scholarship of a German institution, PhD- and master students will be considered preferential with regard to the allocation of appointments.

The intended category of study will be checked before you are allowed to enter the visa section. If the intended category of study does not match with the intended category of study you indicated in the registration, you will not be allowed to enter the visa section.

Given the high demand for appointments, please note that you have to wait approximately up to more than twelve (12) months for the allocation of your appointment.

Therefore please refrain from related enquiries under any circumstances.

If you would like to cancel this registration, please do so by clicking on the following link: Link

Yours sincerely
